

USES FREEDOM FROM JAIL TO WRECK STOLEN CAR ON MONDAY

Leo Gerald Little, 25, Hanover, was lodged in the Adams County jail Monday night at 10:30 o'clock, exactly 15 hours after he had been released from that institution.

During his freedom, Little, according to police, stole a car in New Oxford and went joy riding, eventually crashing into a telephone pole near Littlestown, after which he abandoned the vehicle, and was later picked up by police while he was hitchhiking a half mile from the scene of the wreck.

Little Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock completed a sentence of 30 days on a disorderly conduct charge brought following a altercation in Cumberland Twp. Sheriff Dawson Miller said Little had been out of another prison only a short time before being arrested in Cumberland Twp.

WRECKED AUTO

State police say Little stole a 1958 Plymouth sedan between 5:30 to 5:45 o'clock Monday afternoon from the lot of Kaiser Brothers, Lincolnway East, New Oxford.

Then he began his "joy ride," police said. It ended about 7:15 o'clock Monday night when the car left the highway approximately three miles east of Littlestown on the Littlestown-Hanover Rd. and crashed into a pole, causing $750 damage to the left front of the vehicle.

Little abandoned the car and started toward Hanover, according to the officers.

The resignation will be effective November 15 when Dr. Newsham and his family move to their new home in the Woodcrest section of Cumberland Twp. The board accepted the resignation with "extreme regret."

After adjournment, the board discussed the matter of filling the vacancy. The position is expected to be filled at the school board's December meeting. The new appointee will serve out Dr. Newsham's unexpired term of five years, regardless of the outcome of today's merger.

PLEASED WITH CLASSES

President Robert H. Deardorff presided at the meeting with all directors present.

The board was told that the adult evening classes at the school have between 90 and 100 enrolled in five classes and that students and staff alike are "pleased with the success of the first attempt to conduct the evening classes on a two-term basis." The second term, or semester, will open January 15.

COUNCIL MAY PUT LIGHTS ON STEINWEHR

Gettysburg likely will have a semi-activated traffic light at the intersection of Steinwehr Ave., S. Washington St. and the Taneytown Rd. next summer when the tourist traffic causes a demand for such a light, on the basis of discussion at Monday evening's meeting of borough council at the engine house.

H. S. Pomroy, district engineer for the state Highway Department, told council he could "almost guarantee" state approval for the project if council decides to go ahead with it and if the town will adopt certain regulations pertaining to exits from motels and service stations in the area.

It was indicated that council will probably make its decision on the light by the January meeting so that the cost, estimated "in the neighborhood of $5,000 or more," can be placed in the budget for next year.

FAVOR LIGHTS NOW

Opinions expressed by various councilmen indicated they currently favor such a light.

Pomroy, who made a survey of traffic at the intersection, said the count showed traffic utilization approximately high enough to permit a fixed time traffic signal at the corner, but said that a semi-activated, or fully-activated traffic signal would be far preferable.

RECOMMENDED

He recommended for the intersection one or possibly two overhead traffic lights plus possibly two on the corners of the intersection.

EXPLAINS PLAN

He explained the "semi-activated" system as providing for a car detector on the S. Washington and Taneytown Rd. sides of the intersection. Normally the green light would be facing Stein-

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said Wenzloff was hunting accompanied by his son, Dr. Edward F. PRESIDENT IS FIRST TO VOTE IN CUMBERLAND

President Eisenhower cast ballot Number One in Cumberland Twp. Precinct Number Two at 7:03 o'clock this morning. The chief executive flew to Barlow in a helicopter to cast his ballot in the Barlow fire hall. His son, Lt. Col. John Eisenhower, cast the second ballot and two Eisenhower employees, Dolores B. Moaney, a maid, and John A. Moaney, the President's valet, cast ballots three and four. John Moaney has been in the President's employ for 18 years, serving under him throughout the Second World War.

Mr. Eisenhower was in a jovial mood. He alighted from the "copter" briskly and was greeted by H. Earl Pitzer, Aspers, chairman of the Adams County Republican Committee, and Fred G. Pfeffer, GOP state committeeman.

HAD TO WAIT

When the President started to the fire hall he was surrounded by more than 150 admirers, including several children, and the security force had to wedge a way for him through the crowd.

In the fire hall Mr. Eisenhower removed his coat and stepped toward the voting tables. Mrs. Fred Swisher, judge of elections, greeted him and said: "I'm sorry Mr. President, but you will have to wait five minutes. The polls don't open until 7 o'clock." The President laughed loudly and said, "I won't mind waiting." He had dropped down in the field behind the fire hall at approximately 6:49 a.m.

When the President was asked: "Do you have a prediction, Mr. President?" He grinned and said: "You can't campaign within 100 feet of the polls; you see I can't talk." While waiting for the 7 a.m. opening he shook hands with other precinct employees. They are Kenneth McClellan and Mrs. Clarence Mehring, inspectors; Mrs. William Sentz, Mrs. Russell Durbin, Mrs. Bernard Miller and Clarence Mehring.

LIKES GOOD SCHOOLS

At 7 o'clock Mrs. McClellan addressed the President again: "All right, Mr. President, you may go up and sign your paper."

When Mr. Eisenhower was given his ballots, McClellan explained briefly the school merger referendum. He turned and said: "I'm always interested in good schools."

After the President deposited his ballot in the ballot box one of the reporters asked: "Can you tell us how you voted, Mr. President?"

Again the President laughed and raising his left arm he pointed to his wrist watch and said: "That's

Furniture Factory, CC Officers Confer

The Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce may be able to help the Gettysburg Furniture Factories Company lease or sell its structures along the railroad to the north of York St., Julian Estep, president of the Chamber, said today.

Estep, J. Howard Gaines, chairman of the industrial development committee of the Chamber, and William A. Bigham and James Hayes, subcommittee chairmen, met at the Chamber offices Monday afternoon with Gordon Webster, of the furniture company, to learn about the company's plans for disposition of the buildings.

Estep said Webster reported his company would like to sell the buildings, but will also consider leasing all or parts of the complex of structures that comprise the furniture factories' holdings.

Gaines reported at the meeting that "some interest" has been shown by several industries pertaining to possible rental of space in the furniture factories buildings.

Expect Record 67 Million To Go To Polls Today In U.S.

By ARTHUR EDSON
WASHINGTON (AP)—An estimated 67 million voters decide today whether Vice President Richard M. Nixon or Sen. John F. Kennedy should be trusted with guiding this nation through its next fateful four years.

Forecasts of reasonably good weather in most of the nation made it almost certain that the turnout will be a record, easily beating the 62 million mark set in 1956.

State and congressional races, some of them as heated as the presidential contest, will help swell the vote total. Twenty-seven governors, 34 senators and all 347 U.S. representatives are also being elected today.

STRONG FINISH

For months both presidential candidates have been shooting off an unprecedented display of oratorical fireworks.

Teachers, Clubmen At Dinner Monday

The Gettysburg branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, Gettysburg Lions and representatives of other local service clubs dined together Monday evening at the Gettysburg High School cafeteria as part of the local observance of National Education Week.

Mrs. Dorothy Sprigg, local elementary school teacher and president of the PSEA, presided with about 150 in attendance.

The program was a film, "What Greater Gift." It concerned the teaching profession and the rewards there that attract young people to it.

Mrs. Sprigg introduced Franklin Twp. elementary teachers attending the affair and representatives of the Lions, Kiwanis, Rotarians, Business and Professional Women, Jaycees and Future Teachers of America. The program was introduced by Paul W. Grove, chairman of the PSEA's public relation committee. The meal was served by the cafeteria staff.

MANY TOPICS DEBATED BY TOWN COUNCIL

Whether Gettysburg College should be directed to place a curb along the north side of W. Broadway Ext. was debated at Monday evening's meeting of borough council during a general discussion on the town's policy on curbs.

Burgess Wilbur L. Plank said the school and others should be because "if one person has to place a curb before a street is built, then everyone else, including the borough of Gettysburg, should have to place a curb before a street is built."

The burgess also said that "where we don't have curbs we have a problem of parking vehicles. All the ordinances spell out parking as being from the curb and how are you going to determine a curb line when there is no curb?" He added: "Wade Ave. is a good sample of what happens when you don't have curbs, they park all over the place."

OTHER DISPUTES

Highways Committee Chairman Mahlon P. Hartzell Sr. noted, "There have been a lot of places in town with no curbs for 50 years." Hartzell said he could see no reason for a curb on the north side of the Broadway extension because "there are no buildings there."

Another argument arose about the placing of yellow lines for a crossing by school children from the Eisenhower School across E. Broadway. The lines now come to a spot at the property of Mares Sherman and the children must cross several feet of Sherman's lawn before reaching the sidewalk. Councilman Mrs. Rebecca Schwenk suggested the lines could be diagonal. Borough Engineer LeRoy Winebrenner held he "put the lines where I was ordered." No action was taken on the dispute.

COUNCIL ADDS POLICEMAN; 8TH ON FORCE

Gettysburg borough council named Russell Potter, 22, 432 S. Washington St., as a policeman at its meeting Monday evening at the engine house thus bringing to eight the number of full-time officers. No date was set for him to start his duties.

At the same time council again sought some legal way to hire part-time policemen only to run into a belief on the part of Solicitor Attorney Eugene V. Bulleit that the proposed plan—an ordinance setting an hourly rate for policemen—would be illegal under the code provided for boroughs by the state legislature.

Attorney John D. Thrush, chairman of the committee which examined the men who successfully passed the Civil Service examination given some time ago for police officers, recommended Potter for employment as a policeman, but said others wanted only part-time police work.

ATTORNEYS DEBATE

Arguing that the need for policemen varies in the town from day to day and often according to the time of day, Thrush presented an ordinance which would permit the payment of an hourly rate for policemen. With such an ordinance, Thrush said, the burgess could hire extra policemen at peak periods of need and pay them for the hours they worked.

Thrush's original ordinance set an hourly rate for deputy sheriffs and other police officers that the burgess might hire. Attorney Bulleit ruled that was an effort to get around the requirement that only officers who have passed the Civil Service examination may be employed as policemen.

Attorney Thrush then amended his ordinance so that it provided only for paying an hourly rate to those who had passed the Civil Service examination.

Attorney Bulleit said that still violated the borough code and the two attorneys argued the law until Council President Glenn Guise decided the best way was to have a thorough study made of the legality of the measure.

MORE POLICE MATTERS

Attorney Thrush's final comment was, "It's ridiculous that we can't hire an officer on a part-time basis."

Attorney Bulleit's final comment: "I doubt that you can."

ASK COUNCIL TO USE TAX TO LURE TOURISTS

The Gettysburg Travel Council Monday evening asked the borough council to consider using tax on tourist attractions to promote additional tourist visitation to the community.

A. Kenneth Dick, president of Travel Council, in presenting the proposal to borough council at its meeting in the engine house, said similar propositions will be put to Cumberland and Straban Twp. in an effort to secure more tourists for the area.

Dick told council: "The purpose of the Gettysburg Travel Council is to promote, advertise and educate the general public to the scenic, recreational, historical and commercial values of Gettysburg and vicinity. We have done much toward that purpose but there is much more that we should and must do. Our revenue is derived from members, but, generous as it is, we are handicapped by lack of funds. We raise around $10,000 a year, but we should have at least $25,000."

"WE'VE BEEN LUCKY"

"For example when the Chicago AAA requests 5,000 Gettysburg brochures, we can send them only 100. We do not have the money to buy half enough brochures to fill requests from people who would distribute them for us free to people who are interested in coming to Gettysburg. It is frustrating for us to know that we could bring more people here and keep them longer if we had adequate financing, because other communities, towns and states are doing it."

"Several years ago Miami, Fla., imposed an amusement tax similar to the one enacted here in (Continued On Page 3)

With construction of the new surgical suite on the second floor of the North Wing well underway directors of the Warner Hospital at a meeting Monday evening in the Messelman annex, authorized a $350,000 campaign to finance the project.

John A. Hauser, chairman of the building committee, reported one wall of the new unit at roof level and the second wall close to roof level. Long span steel and the roof deck are expected to be delivered this week.

"Barring bad weather or unforeseen complications, the roof should be on in another 10 days and the new construction closer in," Hauser said. He stated that weather will then no longer be a deterring factor and the work of the mechanical subcontractors will proceed without delay.

The building chairman said the north wing solarium will be taken out of service for an extended period in order to reframe the room to carry the heavy equipment that will be installed above it. All major equipment for the new surgery suites has been approved as well as the major suppliers, Hauser announced.

MUCH-NEEDED UNIT

"Construction of the much-needed surgery unit is the third and final phase of our expansion program and we are proud to give assurance that this department will be complete in every detail. Structurally and equipment wise, the surgery unit, like the other new units of the hospital, will make the Warner Hospital comparable with the best in the country," Hauser declared.

Atty. Richard A. Brown, chairman of the campaign committee, was authorized to engage the firm of Will, Folsom and Smith to conduct the $350,000 fund campaign. This is the same company that successfully conducted the fund drive for the South Wing three years ago. It is anticipated that initial phases of the fund raising will be under way in December.

"We are confident that the required $350,000 will be raised speedily and without difficulty," Brown told the directors.

SCHOOL ISSUE IS DISCUSSED IN CASHTOWN

The question of the proposed school merger was discussed at a meeting of the Franklin Twp. school board and township residents at the elementary school Monday evening.

Thomas O. Oyler, chairman of the board, and Maynard Stuckey acted as spokesmen most of the evening for the board.

There were approximately 75 at the meeting and many asked questions of the board.

Board members said that they believed the main problem would be that Franklin Twp. residents would be paying other township's taxes and they would be getting "no better schools in return." The said that the fourth, fifth and sixth graders would be shifted elsewhere "leaving only three egrades at the school."

"NOT READY FOR MERGER"

It was stated by one member that Franklin Twp. pays 17.3 per cent of the expenditures for the Gettysburg Junior-Senior High School and the millage is presently one of the lowest in the county, and that there is no likely increase in millage for the next year. Some members expressed the opinion that "a merger is fine, but the system is not quite ready to take the step at the present time."

Members said that four of the five directors in the township would be eliminated and thus lose voting rights in the jointure. It was stated by one member, "At the present time, there are 37 school directors in the Gettysburg Jointure who rubber stamp everything that comes before them. All the business would be transferred to the central office in Gettysburg, including such things as bus (Continued On Page 5)

TELLS ABOUT COUNTY HOME

W. E. Jordan, superintendent of the Adams County Home, was the speaker Monday evening at the weekly meeting of the Kiwanis Club at the Lamp Post. Stating there are 58 county homes in the state, Jordan recalled they were originally known as "poor farms" and at that time also cared for the insane people of the county. In 1937 Pennsylvania changed the law and abolished the poor directors, and the county homes are now under the supervision of the state Department of Welfare.

Mr. Jordan pointed out how the number of nurses has been increased and medical care to the patients has improved. During the last two years he stated they have taken in 20 new patients and all but three are contributing to their support.

One of the improvements in the new building will be a chapel for worship.

HAVE WAITING LIST

The number of persons at the home at present is 78, which is the maximum capacity. There is a waiting list, he added. Forms of recreation have been arranged and are being planned, one of which is stamp collection.

Mr. Jordan praised the county commissioners for their efforts in making the new home possible and the "fine work" done by the auxiliary. The oldest guest is 105 years old, he said.

Roy Thomas, chairman of the committee for the sale of tickets for the concert of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, reported receipts of $105.04. The club expressed its appreciation to Julian N. Estep, manager of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, for making this opportunity available to the club.

TOWN PARKING DISCUSSED BY ROTARY CLUB

"Somehow or other we just can't get people to use off-street parking, even when it's for free," J. Frank Sapp and Mares Sherman told the Rotary Club at its meeting Monday evening in the YWCA. Sapp was the principal speaker, giving his classification talk as a member of the club, but points he brought up concerning the retail business led to a general discussion on several problems affecting the community and its business areas.

One of the questions raised was why the public generally does not use the parking lots available, when the merchants are eager to pay for the parking. Sherman held "some people walk seven or eight blocks to shop when they could park only a few feet away for free."

Sapp said the plan of local merchants to give slips providing for free parking "is not well enough publicized." Frank Britcher reported his drug store had paid for only 15 free parking tickets during the last month, "that's all that parked free and got cards from us."

Sapp, who came here from Brunswick, Md., a year ago to take over management of the Coffman-Fisher store here, said: "The first thing that happened, my wife went around to visit the stores. She found our Gettysburg merchants have better supplies than most towns of the same size and the clerks by and large are more courteous than many elsewhere. We are also blessed by having no empty downtown stores. We don't have enough parking, but that is not exclusive to Gettysburg. Every community has the same problem."

Dr. Kenneth Smoke reported $124.05 profit from the recent symphony concert. President William Lentz presided.

lights at Buford Ave. and Steinhilber Ave., which will increase the size of the green arrows, permitting traffic bound to the right to continue despite a red light, from eight inches to 12 inches in size. The cost will be "about $135."

10,000 TICKETS

The highway committee was asked to study a proposal by Councilman Philip M. Jones that when W. Broadway is constructed today Constitution Ave. heavy trucks be excluded. Jones and Borough Engineer Winebrenner explained that the type construction planned will not permit use of the street by heavy trucks. Similar ordinances have been passed for E. Broadway and Springs Ave.

The safety committee was asked to study a proposal that parking be banned on N. Washington St. at the bridge over the Tiber and that yellow lines be placed through the bridge area directing traffic away from an abutment that extends about two feet out into the street at that spot.

Councilman George Naugle was authorized to secure three bids on printing 10,000 traffic ticket envelopes and granting the contract to the lowest bidder.

"REC" RELATED TOPICS

The possibility of elimination of the entrance from Chambersburg St. into the car lot at the C. W. Epley garage, located on the north side of Chambersburg St., was discussed.

Considerable discussion on a bill for $554.20 for materials for dugouts being put on the Little League field, plus discussion on the hiring of a policeman by the Recreation Board, plus a plea from the fire department for all-year lighting in the dining hall at the Recreation Field led to a decision of council to visit with the Recreation Board.

"COUNCIL HAS DUTY"

Councilman Richard Smith said the cost of the Little League dugouts will be about $1,200. He said the program attracts "900 youths and adults" and "the Recreation Board gives Little League no consideration." The Little League spent $1,100 for officials last year and $330 for lime, he said.

Council President Glenn Guise declared council could not consider the bill for $554 from the Little League. "The recommendation must come through the Recreation Board, that's the body we assign the job of running recreation."

After the discussion, Borough Solicitor Eugene V. Buleit said council, the people who use the recreation field and the Recreation Board should "get together. Council has a moral duty to find out if everything isn't as it should be." Council President Glenn Guise named Councilmen John D. Thrush, Hartzell, DeHaas and Smith as a committee to meet with the Recreation Board and "investigate this."

NEW STREET LIGHTS

Approval was given for placing of new street lights in the middle of Sunset Ave., two of them on Highland Ave. south of King St. and one on Long Lane "at the dog leg."

State Highway Engineer H. S. Pomroy was asked about traffic signals at Lincoln Square. He said he could not give an answer immediately but said any approval would also probably involve removal of parking on streets radiating from the square for about two blocks and would involve timing with other traffic lights outside the square. In regard to the effect the Route 15 bypass will have on Gettysburg traffic, Pomroy said he felt that traffic would increase in Gettysburg. "The through traffic would go around but a lot of people will come here because it will be easier to get to."

The town voted to pay $300 toward the cost of constructing the new sidewalk at the county library on E. High St.

BOOKKEEPING SHIFT

Approval was given for removing $6,000 from the amount listed in the budget for miscellaneous and placing it in the amount allocated for protection to persons and property. Expenses in that department of the borough went $441.38 in the red this month.

An offer of Accountant Philip Dunn to audit the amusement tax accounts free of charge was accepted.

Councilman John Welshonce reported for the finance committee that purchases of U. S. Treasury $25,000 90-day notes has resulted in $628.75 profit for the borough so far and apologized because "the market is a little off and we didn't make as much as we thought we would." The present note expires November 19 and the treasurer was authorized to re-invest the funds.

CHECK ON HAZARDS

A letter from the fire library thanked the council for deciding to increase the amount given the library from $1,000 to $1,500.

A report by Borough Fire Marshal Donald Jacobs showed checks have been made of the town's schools and the Hotel Gettysburg pertaining to fire hazards "and we are happy to report we found everything in good condition."

Complaint was made by a Mrs. Cullison on Breckenridge St. that a new sidewalk placed by her neighbor was causing water to

300 GUESTS FLEE HOTEL

NEW YORK (AP) — An unexplained fire sent thick, black smoke billowing through Manhattan's largest hotel, the New Yorker, forcing 300 guests to flee. One man died of a heart attack and 19 others were overcome by smoke.

A possible disaster was averted at the 40-floor hotel Monday by the prompt arrival of five fire companies and fire rescue squads. Firemen and hotel employees ranged through the hotel evacuating the choking, crying victims. Firemen said the blaze broke out in an unoccupied three-room suite on the 6th floor of the 2,000-room hotel and quickly spread down a hall after burning the suite. The blaze was confined to that floor.

A painter, Emanuel Veneziano, 61, died of a heart attack. Another painter was in critical condition from smoke inhalation.

LOCAL GRAD IS PRESIDENT OF YORK-SHIPLEY

Lavern H. Brenneman was elected president and general manager of York-Shipley, Inc., York, at a special meeting of the board of directors of the company on Monday, according to a letter written to employees of the company by Samuel H. Shipley Sr., newly elected chairman of the board, who held the post of president during the past 20 years.

Brenneman joined the Roosevelt oil petroleum division of the company as an accountant in 1936 when he graduated from Gettysburg College with an A.B. degree in Business Administration. With the purchase of the York Oil Burner Company in 1938 by the Shipley interests, he became treasurer of the company. He was elected to the board of directors in 1941 and in 1943 vice president in charge of war work. At the end of World War II in 1946, he was elected executive vice president.

Brenneman is a member of the board of directors of the Manufacturers' Association, president of the Alumni Association of Gettysburg College, and president of B. S. & B., Inc., developers of the North Gate Shopping Center, York. He resides with his family at 2233 Loucks Rd., Kohlers Hill, York.

ASK COUNCIL

Gettysburg. The money received from the tax in Miami snowballed because the money paid by tourists was used only for the promotion of more tourists.

"We have been lucky having President Eisenhower and his family here and the free national promotion by Cliff Arquette.

GIVEN TO COMMITTEE

"But we can't count on luck always to promote our community. Let's have a sure thing. Let's double or triple our tourist business with a well-organized promotional plan.

"This is the best interests of the town because everyone benefits from the tourists. The hotels, motels, restaurants, museums and gas stations may seem to be the principal beneficiaries, but they in turn must buy services and equipment and hire people and the benefit spreads to everyone."

The request by Dick was turned over to the finance committee of council to study and make recommendations.

whom I voted for." On the face of his watch were miniature photographs of his four grandchildren. The photographers and reporters crowded around him for a closer look and at their request the President let them take photographs of the watch.

When John Eisenhower cast his ballot his father was standing nearby and photographers asked John to "hold it" while they took photographs. Again the President laughed and said to the reporters: "I'm not really supervising this, you know."

POSES WITH CHILDREN

Outside the fire hall the President spotted two youngsters, a little girl with a Nixon-Lodge pin on her coat and a boy, John Harner, wearing a Nixon-Lodge hat. Mr. Eisenhower stooped down and shook hands with both, touched the little girl under the chin and then directed photographers to take pictures of the trio.

While walking to the 'copter for the return flight the President asked Chairman Pitzer how the district would vote. He was assured by the GOP chairman that it would "go Republican by 1,200 or more." He asked about the congressional race and again Pitzer said he felt the GOP candidate would win.

At 7:12 a.m. the chief executive was airborne enroute to the White House. He had cast his second presidential vote in Cumberland Twp.

wehr Ave., permitting that traffic to pass through. But when a car or cars approached on the other sides of the intersection a detector would note their presence and cause the light to turn red on Steinwehr Ave. and green on the Washington St.-Taneytown Rd. side. He said the detector would determine whether one or a number of cars was present and would vary the length of time of the light. With both sides busy, the light would give approximately 25 seconds green on the Taneytown Rd.-Washington St. side and 35 seconds green on the Steinwehr Ave. side. "Thus in the summertime at peak hours your light would be operating almost as a fixed cycle light," Pomroy said.

He explained that a pressure detector can be placed in the roadway to activate the light, or a radar device or a supersonic sound detector can be used. He said the cost of the semi-activated equipment will run about $500 more than installation of a fixed-time traffic signal.

To get permission for the light, Pomroy said, the town will have to arrange for curbing along the service stations at the intersections so traffic can enter S. Washington St. and Taneytown Rd. "from such a position that the vehicles pass the detector." Arrangements will have to be made with the Three Crowns motel so that traffic leaving it enters only on S. Washington St. "because that is the only safe way to handle it." The entrance to the motel from Steinwehr Ave. may remain however, Pomroy said.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

SAY KENNEDY "SUPREMELY CONFIDENT"

By RELMAN MORIN

BOSTON (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy waited quietly at home today for the verdict of the voters after closing one of the longest, hardest, and most beautifully engineered presidential campaigns in history.

He looked supremely confident, the picture of a man who felt he had won.

For the record, he continued to call today's election "close."

But the feeling in his camp is that he is heading for at least a substantial victory over Vice President Richard M. Nixon and at most a Roosevelt-type landslide.

GOT EARLY LEAD

Kennedy's strategists believe he succeeded in seizing the initiative from Nixon in the final weeks of the campaign. Kennedy hammered at the question of the immediate future of the country, arguing that it is slowing down economically and militarily and that it has lost prestige around the world. His aides feel he convinced the voters that he is better equipped than Nixon to "get it moving again."

Their own findings, the figures in national and regional polls, and the unexpectedly large and enthusiastic crowds in the past three days bolstered the high optimism in Kennedy's entourage.

The Democratic presidential candidate, working right up to the midnight deadline, spent the night in Boston at his apartment on Beacon Hill.

VOTING IN BOSTON

He prepared to vote today at the West End branch of the Boston Public Library in Ward 3, Precinct 6. His wife, Jacqueline, said she would motor the 75 miles from their summer home at Hyannis Port to cast her ballot with him.

Immediately afterward the senator and his wife expected to fly to Hyannis Port to await the returns.

Near the senator's house fronting on Nantucket Sound are the homes of his brother Robert, and his father, Joseph P. Kennedy.

KEYS STATES CLOSE

Robert served as his campaign manager. His home was set up as headquarters and filled with communications machinery — four news agency teleprinters, extra television sets, and more than 30 telephones.

The key states, in the eyes of Kennedy's strategists, are California, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Texas, Virginia and New Jersey. They are considered close.

These seven have a total of 168 electoral college votes. The minimum for victory is 269.

Hanging over the voting is the brooding, silent issue of Kennedy's religion. He is a Roman Catholic.

BRINGS UP RELIGION

Kennedy addressed himself to the religious question once again in the final hours of the battle. In a coast-to-coast television program on which he appeared with his three sisters, the senator answered a series of questions. One was:

"If elected, will your actions as president be influenced by your church?"

Kennedy replied carefully and at great length. He said, as he has before, that he will "take the oath to defend the Constitution which includes the separation of church and state, and includes the provision that there shall be no religious test for office." He said that if he violated the oath he should be impeached as president.

MAMIE VOTES

a long grey gloves.

RECEIVES KISS FOR IKE

Among her greeters when she arrived was H. Earl Pitzer, chairman of the Republican committee, and his vice chairman, Elna Group.

Every request for a photograph by the news photographers and amateur lensmen and women was granted, and there were dozens. She posed the way each photographer asked and autographed several pictures.

Just as she was about to leave the polling place she spied little Bertha Dietz, 20-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dietz, R. 2. She stopped and shook hands with the youngster and said, "You're pretty cute."

Outside Mrs. Norman Payne, of Windsor R. 1, York County, who with eight other women from York County came here to see the President and Mamie, as they have done on each occasion the Eisenhowers voted in Pennsylvania, stepped up to Mrs. Eisenhower and asked: "Will you give a kiss to the President for me?"

"I sure will," Mamie said, and with that Mrs. Payne planted a kiss on Mrs. Eisenhower's cheek while newsreel men cranked away to record the event.

The York Countians brought their lunch with them. At 11:03 a.m. Mamie waved from her limousine and drove away.

Mrs. Eisenhower's daughter-in-law, Barbara, cast ballot Number 140 at 10:20 a.m.

John S. Rice, W. Broadway, chairman of the Pennsylvania State Democratic Committee and secretary of the Commonwealth, and Mrs. Rice are shown casting their votes at 8:30 o'clock this morning. They voted in the Second Ward, the polling place is located in the Kendeheart pool room, Chambersburg St. Immediately after voting they drove to Harrisburg where they will receive election returns tonight. Dr. Finch And Carole Face Third Trial For Murder; Jury Disagrees

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Three women doubted a gigolo's story, the jury deadlocked—and a third murder trial now faces Dr. R. Bernard Finch and his red-haired sweetheart, Carole Tregoff.

The second trial ended Monday with the unshaken, impassive defendants going back to jail.

Then as the 11 women and one man of the jury separated and scattered to their homes, they told newsmen how they reached their hopeless deadlock.

AGREED ON GUILT

All agreed that Dr. Finch was guilty of murdering his wife, Barbara Jean. But while nine voted for first-degree murder, three held out through 59 ballots for a verdict of second-degree.

These three said they didn't believe the testimony of one of the state's key witnesses, gigolo-hoodlum John Patrick Cody, who said Dr. Finch, 42, and Miss Tregoff, 23, had hired him to murder Mrs. Finch.

The split was the same on Miss Tregoff. Nine voted her guilty and three voted her innocent. The state claimed that when Cody didn't kill Mrs. Finch—but told the defendants he had, to bilk them of money—then the doctor and Miss Tregoff went to the Finch home and "did it themselves." The defendants claimed Mrs. Finch was killed when a pistol discharged accidentally.

SAME OUTLOOK FOR CONGRESS

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new Congress being selected today by the voters will contain many new faces, but little change is expected in the alignment of voting strength.

Although some Republican gains were indicated in the House, a sweep to Republican control appeared unlikely. Instead, the conservative coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats seemed certain to remain a powerful force.

The coalition, forged during New Deal days, functioned effectively in the last Congress. If anything, its ability to dilute, if not defeat, legislation it doesn't like may be increased by Republican gains in today's election.

In the Senate, where the Democrats enjoyed a 66-34 advantage last session, they have 43 hold-over seats, which means they need win only eight of the 34 seats at stake in order to retain control. They figure to do better than that.

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 59 met Friday at 7 p.m. at the Christ Lutheran Church. George Helwig, whose daughter, Denise, is a member of the troop, took the girls on a hayride. They returned to the church at 9:30 o'clock and from there went to the home of Denise Helwig, Gettysburg R. 1, where refreshments were served. Adults present were Mr. and Mrs. George Helwig, Mr. and Mrs. George Fair and Mrs. Robert Hand.

PARTY ON SATURDAY

A Tupperware and copperware party will be held at the York Springs fire hall Saturday at 6 o'clock sponsored by the Mothers' Auxiliary of the Boy Scouts.

Weddings

Klunk—Sneeringer

Miss Rose Marie Sneeringer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Sneeringer, New Oxford R. 2, and Benedict H. Klunk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Klunk, Hanover R. 4, were united in marriage in the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church New Oxford, Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Monsignor Patrick F. McGee. The church was decorated with white pompons and pink mums. The soloist was Miss Elna Smith and the organist, Miss Maria Noel.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over slipper satin. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped sabrina neckline with pearl and sequin trim and long sleeves tapering to points over the hands. The bouffant lace skirt was accented with tiers of lace and tulle in front and back of the gown. Her fingertip veil of matching lace fell from a pleated tulle cap trimmed with pearls and sequins. She carried a front-line bouquet of red and white roses.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Betty Staub, New Oxford, sister of the bride, wore a pink street length gown of filmy nylon organza sheer over rustling acetate taffeta. Her matching veil fell from a headpiece of filmy petals, sprinkled with seed pearls. She carried a front-line bouquet of white and pink mums.

Charles J. Klunk, brother of the groom, Hanover R. 4, was the best man. William J. Sneeringer, brother of the bride, New Oxford, and Lloyd T. Klunk, brother of the groom, Hanover, were the ushers.

The reception was held at Centennial Fire Hall, Mount Rock, with approximately 250 guests present. For their wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada the bride chose a beige coat and black accessories. On return they will reside at Hanover R. 4. The bride is a 1952 graduate of Delone Catholic High School and is employed at Lana Lobell, Inc. The groom is engaged in farming with his father.

Eline—Bream

Miss Bernice Rosemary Bream, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Bream Sr., Hanover R. 3, became the bride of William Curtis Eline, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Eline, Hanover, Sunday at 3 p.m. at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church. The Rev. Howard J. McCarty performed the double ring ceremony.

Miss Linda Kaltreider, Hanover R. 3, served as maid of honor. The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Roy A. Bream Jr., Hanover, was bridesmaid, and the bride's sister, Miss Marlene Bream was junior bridesmaid. Pattie Ann Sterner, Hanover, niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. William Sterner, Hanover, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Roy Bream Jr., brother of the bride, and Kenneth Hartlaub, Hanover, cousin of the bridegroom. The bride's nephew, Roy Bream 3rd, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church social room with about 350 guests attending. Mr. and Mrs. Eline left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada. On their return the couple will reside at 207 E. Walnut St., Hanover. Mrs. Eline is a 1958 graduate of Hanover Senior High School and is employed by The Evening Sun. Her husband is a 1952 graduate of the Hanover High School and is employed by Hanover Canning Co.

FIRST VOTERS GO FOR NIXON, LODGE TICKET

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP) —

Four isolated New Hampshire villages, the first towns to report, overwhelmingly preferred Vice President Richard M. Nixon in early election returns today.

The towns, voting immediately after midnight, gave 40 votes to Nixon and 8 to his Democratic opponent, Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

The votes, with the 1956 division in parentheses: Millsfield, a logging township near Dixville Notch on the northern edge of the White Mountains—Nixon 4, Kennedy 1 (R 5, D 2). Dixville, a brand new town in the state's northernmost county—Nixon 9, Kennedy 0 (no 1956 vote).

OTHER RESULTS

Hart's Location, deep in Crawford's Notch of the White Mountains—Nixon 7, Kennedy 5 (R 3, D 5).

Waterville Valley, 15 miles north of Plymouth in the Mad River Valley—Nixon 20, Kennedy 2 (R 13, D 0).

Waterville Valley gave incumbent Republican Gov. Wesley Powell 14 votes to 8 for his Democratic opponent Bernard L. Boutin.

Under New Hampshire law, very small towns may set their own voting hours and when every voter is accounted for officials may close the balloting. Absentee ballots were on hand from those who could not be present. One absentee ballot cast at Waterville Valley came from Vienna, Austria.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Big Election Vote Pollled: Not for several years has there been so much interest and feeling in an election as today and as a result one of the largest votes in the history of the county is reported.

The voting started as soon as the polls were opened at seven o'clock and in every section of the county it was but a short while until the men were out in force. The clear November morning helped to bring out the vote and with the interest in state and local issues the proportion of those who stayed at home was reduced to a minimum.

Will Not Raise Price Of Milk: Gettysburg people who have feared a raise in the price of milk may rest assured, at least for a while, that the dairymen of the town will keep the prices as at present.

An effort was made to raise the price to hotel proprietors and boarding housekeepers from five to six cents a quart. They are known to local dairymen as the wholesale trade and it was generally felt that they could afford to pay six cents, the retail price, better than the ordinary consumer could afford to pay an extra cent.

School Patrons' League Formed: The patrons of the Gettysburg public schools met at the new High School building on Monday evening and organized a Parent-Teachers' League for the betterment of the schools and the scholars. It is understood that the membership need not be confined to parents and teachers alone, but that all interested in the welfare of the schools will be welcomed as members.

Chums Halted An Elopement: Gettysburg narrowly escaped the sensation of an elopement on Monday afternoon when a student at college and a young lady of town had their plans of running away frustrated by several chums of the student.

The student was on his way up town to meet his bride-to-be when several of his closest friends at college in some way found out what he was up to. They immediately made haste to catch him and after some search discovered their friend making all arrangements for the trip. It took long discussion and much persuasion, it is said, to divert him from his purpose.

Big Game Saturday: Word has been received from Carlisle that practically the entire student body of Dickinson College will come over on Saturday for the big football game with Gettysburg on Nixon Field. It will be remembered that two years ago the Dickinson students ran a special train and that last year Gettysburg did the same when the contest took place at Carlisle.

That the game will be interesting and exciting is taken as a matter of course. Both Gettysburg and Dickinson defeated Bucknell by the same score. Gettysburg defeated St. Johns 2 to 0 while Dickinson won 12 to 0. Both teams scored on the Indians and from every comparative score it would seem that the teams are about equally matched.

Hunter Shot In Eye: In a hunting accident which occurred on Monday, William Diven, of Mt. Holly Springs, will, in a, probably lose the sight of his right eye. Diven, in company with Ira Strohm, of Mt. Holly Springs, and Dr. C. S. Basehoar, John D. Minnick and Myron Dunkinson, all of Carlisle, went to the country in the vicinity of McClure's Gap in the North Mountains for rabbits.

Today's Talk

MEMORY DAYS

We would be so much happier each week of the year if we left memories behind, carrying thoughts as we have met them, stimulated by our love of Nature and from the memory date in our mind.

I recall my first small overcoat, my first skates, and my first long pants!

Most of my clothes were made over from my father's worn ones. I loved the way my mother "made things over" and she got fun out of pleasing us. I love to recall all those early days—the likes of which few boys today know about.

Today I take many a walk "down Memory Lane." It has helped to crystallize those simple, beautiful days of the past.

What a multitude of happy days there were "after school" and all the other adventures—memories that live to this day.

There was a small creek near our home and I used to grab some minnows in my hands and rush home with them, but they never lived. So I buried them in a small grave and entered upon some other adventure.

What adventures boys of the small town have, away from the noise of traffic of the city—and what a change into new worlds—worlds all too full of fears.

Just Folks

The candidate is sadly worn,
His face is drawn and pale,
His voice is hoarse and rusty,
His strength begins to fail;
The campaign end is nearing,
And, whether lose or win,
It's plain to all spectators,
He's just about all in.

He's hurried in an auto,
East and west and north and south;
He's overworked his nerve-force
And he's overworked his mouth.
He's done away with sleeping,
And raised a constant din,
He has an object now for pity;
He's just about all in.

He has shaken hands till weary
And a thousand babies kissed;
Of the hard-luck stories going,
Not a one by him was missed;
He has danced a thousand two-steps
And has waltzed until he's thin;
Now the campaign end is nearing,
He's just about all in.

Mickey Thompson
On Improving List

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Although his legs are still paralyzed from Sunday's hydroplane accident on Lake Mead, race driver Mickey Thompson is showing improvement.

The Los Angeles driver suffered a vertebra fracture when his 1,000-horsepower hydroplane challenger nosed into the air as it hit a wave during a preliminary to next weekend's Gold Cup races.

Dr. John Connolly said Thompson can move his toes, but his legs have no feeling.

"He will have to remain hospitalized at least two weeks, and it will be a while before we know if the paralysis is to clear up," the doctor said.

There are 133 doctors and 56 dentists for every 10,000 persons in the United States, the Public Health Service reports.

PA. TO ELECT
30 TO HOUSE
FOR LAST TIME

By JOHN KOENIG JR.,
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pennsylvanians ballot today to choose — for possibly the last time — a total of 30 House members.

Population shifts reported in the 1960 census indicate the state's representation in the House may drop to 27 when the next congressional election is held in 1982.

But, through the next 22th Congress, during which the House membership will remain unchanged, Democrats are confident of maintaining the slim edge they held in the Pennsylvania delegation through the 96th Congress.

Republicans have expressed the hope they will reverse the current membership, which stands at 16 Democrats and 13 Republicans with one vacancy.

Rep. William E. Miller (R-N.Y.) who succeeded the late Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa.) as chairman of the National Republican Congressional Committee, said the GOP is particularly hopeful of replacing Democrats in Pennsylvania's 10th, 14th, 19th and 23rd districts.

He predicted all incumbent Republicans would retain their seats as well as keep the vacant 10th District seat. The vacancy is due to the death June 9 of Rep. Douglas H. Elliott, Chambersburg Republican.

SOME NEW FACES

Here, State Sen. J. Irving Whalley, Whittier Republican, and Democrat Robert M. Meyers, of Lewisburg, will be seeking to fill both the unexpired term and a full two-year term.

Rep. Michael J. Kirwan (D-Ohio) Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee chairman, is confident the Democrats will hold all their present House seats and take two or three more from the Republicans. In keeping with a long-standing policy, Kirwan refused to name the districts he expects the Democrats to capture.

At least two new members will be elected to the Pennsylvania House delegation. This is because of the vacancy in the 10th District and because incumbent Rep. John A. LaFare Jr., Haverford Republican, was defeated in the April 26 primary in the 13th District.

Boy Scout Troop 84 will meet on Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the community building on E. King St. The weekly meetings of the troop have been changed from Wednesday to Thursday.

HUNTER DIES AFTER
Accidental Shooting

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Joseph Rogers, 17, of nearby Millersburg Twp., died at Harnot Hospital Monday night several hours after he was shot in a hunting mishap.

Police said Rogers was shot in the back by his hunting companion, George W. Robinson, 17, also of Millersburg Twp., with a 16-gauge shotgun. They said the boys were hunting in a wooded area near Rogers' home when Robinson stumbled and accidentally pulled the trigger.

NIXON HOME
AFTER 64,000
MILES ON ROAD

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bone-weary Vice President Richard M. Nixon, predicting Republican victory after 64,000 miles of campaigning, came back to his home state early today to vote and await the nation's verdict.

The GOP nominee's swift-paced, far-ranging quest for the presidency came to an informal, spectacular close here even as early rising voters in the East were stirring from their beds to start the nation's march to the polls.

Nixon's chartered jet airliner arrived from Chicago at 12:57 a.m., PST, after a gruelling 7,200-mile tour from California into Alaska, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois and back to California in the final two days of the campaign.

"VOTE FOR BEST MAN"

The formal close of Nixon's campaign against his Democratic rival, Sen. John F. Kennedy, came earlier in a nationwide television address from Chicago. In that low-keyed talk, Nixon called a halt to his weeks-long attack on Kennedy and urged the voters to elect the man—regardless of party label—they regard as best qualified to serve America and safeguard peace.

He left no doubt that he hopes their choice will be Nixon and his vice presidential running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge.

Disregarding polls and analyses which gave Kennedy the edge on election eve, Nixon told his audience:

Berwick-Coal Township, Carlisle-Chambersburg Battle In Key Games

By FRED WALTERS
HARRISBURG (AP)—The 1960 Pennsylvania high school football season has just about run its course, but the coming weekend promises plenty of decisive action.

In the eastern section of the state Ridley Township will meet Springfield of Delaware County for the Suburban II title on Saturday. In Philadelphia, unbeaten Frankford and Lincoln tangle Thursday for the Public League lead.

Berwick and Coal Township meet Saturday in a game that should not only decide the East Penn Southern Division title, but the Keystone Conference championship as well.

The two Wyoming Valley Conference leaders, Kingston and Wilkes-Barre G.A.R., meet Friday.

SOUTH PENN BATTLE
Chambersburg and Carlisle come up to their final South Penn Conference game unbeaten in league play. They meet Friday.

Lock Haven, leader in the West Penn, closes out its season with Philipsburg Friday, seeking revenge for last year's loss that spoiled an unbeaten season. Again Lock Haven comes up to this final game unbeaten and untied.

Allegheny and Westinghouse battle Thursday for the Pittsburgh City championship.

2 "M" TEAMS
On Friday, Beaver and Sewickley play for the WPIAL-A title, while Perryopolis and Washington Township meet for the WPIAL-B championship. Beaver Falls won the AA title last weekend without the need for a playoff.

The Football Committee of the WPIAL chose the two "B" finalists from among five teams that had finished unbeaten and untied in league competition. Beaver and Sewickley were the only eligibles in Class A.

Forty-five teams are unbeaten at this stage of the season, including Wyomissing holder of the state's longest winning string (21 games), Trevorton, Chestnut Ridge, North Union, Neville, Trafford, Verona, Northwestern, Conneaut Valley, Brockway, Union Joint, Sheffield, Bradford St.

AHL SCORERS ALL CENTERS

NEW YORK (AP)—Three veteran centers are setting a hot pace in the American Hockey league individual scoring departments.

Statistics released today for games through last Sunday show Bill Sweeney of Springfield the No. 1 man in total points with 23 on 8 goals and 15 assists, Phil Maloney of Buffalo the top goal scorer with 11 and his teammate, Larry Wilson, the leader in assists with 16.

WILSON 2ND IN POINTS
Wilson, who had been the leading point scorer for several weeks, dropped to second, a point back of Sweeney. Three points back tied for third are Billy McCreary of the league leading Springfield Indians and Norm Corcoran of Quebec.

Howie Young of Hershey retained the penalty lead with 56 minutes although he served only 4 minutes during the past week.

Springfield's Marcel Paille allowed only 4 goals in 3 games last week and lowered his league leading goal tending average to 1.71 on 24 goals in 14 games. Included in his week's work was his fifth shut-out of the season. No other goalie has more than one.

Houston Has Two Leading Rushers

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Houston, the Eastern Division leader of the American Football League, boasts the AFL's top two ball carriers in Dave Smith and Billy Cannon.

Smith has gained 492 yards on 97 carries for a 5.1 average. Cannon, in 87 trips, has picked up 422 yards for a 4.9 average.

George Blanda of Houston retained his scoring leadership with nine points against Denver last week for a total of 84. Gene Mingo of Denver is second with 37.

which got underway five years ago with the construction of the North Wing. This was followed two years ago with the South Wing and the magnificent new kitchens and service areas.

"Surgery had to be left for the third and final phase simply because it is the department that could not be interrupted and had to be continued in its cramped quarters which have long been inadequate.

"The new location atop the North Wing is ideal for the purpose and the new surgery unit will be one that will inspire the confidence and the pride of every resident of Adams County and the adjacent area serviced by the hospital.

CONFIDENT OF SUPPORT
"We are sure that the residents, the business, the professional and the industrial interests of the county will respond readily to complete our hospital by the fulfillment of its greatest need."

Atty. Franklin R. call that there had been an accident. They found a car with no one with it. They drove along the road in search of the driver and came upon Little, who was, according to police, seeking to hitchhike. Little, police said, had a severe laceration of the chin. They took him to the Hanover Hospital for treatment before beginning an investigation into what happened.

Final result of the investigation: Kaiser Brothers was permitted to tow away its wrecked auto; Little was taken before Justice of the Peace George Maitland, Littlestown, and charged with larceny of an auto, driving a car without the owner's permission and driving while his license was suspended. He was then returned to the county jail in default of bail, arriving there at 10:30 o'clock Monday night.

Police said Little also will have another charge to face, one of reckless driving, which is to be placed before a Conewago Twp. justice of the peace.

22 SEEK JOBS ON FAIRFIELD HI CAGE TEAM

A squad of 22 candidates, including three lettermen, have reported to Coach Jack McAndrews of the Fairfield High School basketball squad.

The veterans include Ray Kuykendall, Joe McCauslin and Randy Inskip, all seniors.

John Weikert and George, juniors, who played with the junior varsity last year, are expected to move up and make strong bids for regular berths.

OUTLOOK FAIR
Coach McAndrews terms the outlook as "fair," with his squad having fair to good size but being lacking in speed.

An 18-game schedule has been announced for the squad with the opener scheduled for December 16 at Scotland. However, several games are pending for earlier in December.

The schedule, all Adams-Franklin League games, follows:

routes, work permits, etc." Oyer said, "The only reason for the merger was for administrative purposes only, so that Superintendent of Schools Edgar Reigle would have to fill out only 9 forms instead of 20."

LISTS SUGGESTION
One woman declared that she would rather pay higher taxes and have better schools, than pay higher taxes and not have better schools.

She read a list of suggestions that she said would make the school better. She said teachers were using their own money to buy textbooks and supplies; new textbooks had not been bought by the district when the books were asked for; the school has no library nor a set of encyclopedias, Louis Hammann offered to donate two sets to the school.

Discussion also centered on the new proposed addition to the building, with most of those present in agreement that the school was overcrowded and they would have to spend nearly $200,000 for an addition.

It was stated that the reason for $17,000 surplus and a $65,000 savings account was because the board "was stingy with its money." A woman said the school doesn't have a separate lavatory for the teachers; only one electric outlet in each room; one musical instrument, a snare drum, which was purchased by the PTA, and one movie projector bought by the PTA "which was hardly ever used."

One man who spoke in favor of the merger said "there is a tendency throughout the state to consolidate school districts which would expedite administrative matters, and in the long run, provide better educational facilities for the children."

ORDER NEW EXAM
Chief Bartlett said Mellors had turned in equipment issued him when he resigned as policeman, but that he had not called in the equipment issued to various part-time policemen in the borough because "they had neither resigned nor been fired. I was waiting to find out what disposition council was going to make of the matter. If somebody gives me orders to get in the equipment, I will, Hamme has some equipment, but I have no idea whether he is using it on the job at the college."

Council President Glenn Guise then directed the chief to "get back from the part-time policemen everything we gave them."

Council then voted to request the town's Civil Service Commission to hold another examination for policemen in order to have a list on hand for possible further selection of officers.

A suggestion was made at the meeting that the town hire a parking meter attendant part time, thus releasing the police from that duty, but no action was taken on the matter.

PHILLIES' BOX SEATS
Raised To $3.75
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies have raised their prices on box seats from $2.75 to $3.25 and on reserved seats from $2 to $2.25. General admission ($1.50) and bleacher seats (75 cents) remain the same.

"Since 1950 our expenses have gone up 100 per cent," said owner Bob Carpenter in making the announcement Monday. "I hate to raise the prices when we're in last place but this should bring in $100,000 more a year."

The Phillies finished in last place in the National League in 1960 for the third year in a row.

At the same time Monday, Carpenter said he thought that Philadelphia would have a new stadium in three years to replace Connie Mack Stadium. Other than saying he thought that private enterprise would build the stadium, he gave no other details.

PROSECUTOR WAS SECOND ON MURDER LIST
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The prosecutor who first probed the Chillingworth murders heard in a courtroom confession that he had been next on the death list.

The revelation came in a sobriety statement by Floyd A. Holzapfel that he and a Negro drowned Circuit Judge and Mrs. C. E. Chillingworth for $2,000 offered by Joseph A. Peel Jr.

"He wanted you killed," Holzapfel told State Atty. Phil O'Connell from the witness stand.

"He said you stood in his way and you were the political boss" of Palm Beach County.

Peel, a former West Palm Beach municipal court judge, is charged like Holzapfel with murder in the 1955 disappearance of the Chillingworths. He has denied any complicity in the case. His hearing is next Monday.

MINNESOTA IN FIRST PLACE BY BIG MARGIN

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The five teams of The Associated Press top 10 who escaped unscathed on "Black Saturday" last week possibly are a little apprehensive today.

If it could happen once—the defeat of five leaders in the weekly poll on one day—it could happen again, and several of the clubs in the select circle this week face rugged opposition.

Top-ranking Minnesota, for one. The Golden Gophers meet unranked Purdue, a much better team than its record indicates. Mississippi, No. 4 now, meets also unranked Tennessee, which last week, before its setback at the hands of Georgia Tech, was a member of the top 10.

TAKES FIRST PLACE
Minnesota took over the No. 1 spot by virtue of its decisive, 27-1 victory over Iowa, previously the No. 1 team. The Hawkeyes were dropped to fifth place in the voting by a 48-man panel of sports writers and sportscasters taking part in the poll. It was the Gophers' seventh straight victory.

Ohio State jumped from fifth to third by walloping Indiana, and Mississippi climbed from sixth to fourth with an easy victory over Chattanooga.

Three of the top 10 losers last week—Tennessee, Syracuse and Rice—were dropped from the list in this week's voting. Only Iowa and Navy, which lost to Duke stayed in the select circle. Navy is No. 8.

ROSE BOWL CINCH
Duke, Arkansas and Auburn replaced the three ousted top 10 members. Washington advanced to No. 6 by whopping Southern California, a victory that practically clinches a Rose Bowl place. Minnesota received 40 of the first place votes. Unbeaten Missouri, No. 2, received four, and Ohio State, Mississippi and Washington one each.

One panel member did not vote.

VOTES
The leaders (first place votes in parentheses) points figured on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:
1. Minnesota (40) 462
2. Missouri (4) 387
3. Ohio State (1) 335
4. Mississippi (1) 310
5. Iowa 279
6. Washington (1) 241
7. Duke 156
8. Navy 113
9. Arkansas 72
10. Auburn 64

Others receiving votes were: UCLA 38, Pittsburgh 31, Michigan State 16, Tennessee 15, New Mexico State 10, Rice 9, Yale 8, Syracuse 8, Utah State 7, Florida 6, Alabama 3, Texas, Kansas 3, Oregon 2, Michigan 1, Army 1.

Gettysburg College's rifle team made it four in a row with a 1,405—1,321 win over the University of Delaware in a home match Saturday. —North Allegheny High School is the new cross-country champion of Pennsylvania public school sports.

The westerners won the title here Saturday, dethroning Mount Lebanon which had won the honor three years in a row. North Allegheny scored 61 points to the defending champions 67 to win the run over a 2½-mile course at Pennsylvania State University.

John Stobie, of Mount Lebanon, won individual honors. His time was 10:46.7.

"He wanted you killed," Holzapfel told State Atty. Phil O'Connell from the witness stand.

"He said you stood in his way and you were the political boss" of Palm Beach County.

Peel, a former West Palm Beach municipal court judge, is charged like Holzapfel with murder in the 1955 disappearance of the Chillingworths. He has denied any complicity in the case. His hearing is next Monday.

REPUDIATED CONFESSION
Holzapfel had blandly repudiated a tape-recorded confession which he charged was coerced from him with liquor by agents he regarded as friends. But at his murder hearing in Circuit Court Monday, the World War II hero who turned gangster suddenly lost his nonchalance and began blurted out a story that closely paralleled the telltale tape.

Holzapfel, red-eyed from weeping, pointed out Peel in the courtroom as "the man who hired me to get rid of the judge." Peel showed no emotion.

He said Peel hired him and George David Lincoln, a Negro now serving a moonshine whisky sentence, to kill Chillingworth because the latter "personally is going to take care of me" for unethical conduct in a divorce case, he quoted Peel as saying.

COUNCIL ADDS

fore council. Councilman Clyde DeHaas asked council: "How can the Recreation Board hire a cop? Then he comes to me and demands a uniform. If the town can't hire a part-time policeman how come the Recreation Board can?" The only answer was from Councilman Philip M. Jones who said: "The Recreation Board actually hired a guard, not a policeman."

That led DeHaas to query Chief of Police Jack Bartlett about the location of police equipment, stating that William Mellors, the Recreation Association policeman, in "demanding" that DeHaas give him police equipment stated that Lever C. Hamme, hired as policeman by the college, is using equipment provided by borough police.

13 Die In Weekend State Traffic Mishaps, Including 3 Hershey High School Girls

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

George Chipulonis, 73, one-time middleweight boxing champion of the world, was among 12 persons killed in traffic accidents in Pennsylvania over the weekend.

A non-traffic death pushed the overall toll to 13 from 12 on Friday until midnight Sunday night.

Chipulonis, who fought under the name of George Chip and held the middleweight crown briefly in 1913, died in New Castle Hospital Sunday of injuries suffered Friday night when he was struck by a car on Route 8 near the Lawrence County community. He had been walking along the road.

SORROW IN HERSHEY

Meanwhile, a pall of sorrow hung over Hershey High School today as pupils returning to classes mourned the tragic deaths of three classmates killed early Saturday when their car hit a tree near the State Police Academy in Hershey. They were returning home from a football game.

Killed were Linda Shutter, 17, the driver, and Bonita Christ, 16, of Hershey, and Christina Parks, 16, of Waltonville. A fourth girl, Eileen Petrucci, 16, of Hershey, was reported still in critical condition in Harrisburg Hospital.

Funeral services for Linda and Bonita will be held today. They will be held Wednesday for Christina.

Near Pittsburgh, Roger Wilding, 21, of Whitaker, was freed on $5,000 bond at a hearing on charges of failing to stop after his auto hit two girls, fatally injuring one. Police said Wilding surrendered just a few hours before John Hofmeister, 15, of West Homestead, died in a hospital Saturday night.

4 DIE IN PHILADELPHIA

The auto toll count showed four persons were killed in separate accidents in Philadelphia Saturday and Sunday.

The non-traffic accident occurred Saturday when Gerald M. Denial, 9, of Millersburg, Erie County, was killed by an upright piano which fell over on him while he was helping his father move it across a room.

The other victims:

Philadelphia—Miss Janie Witherspoon, 22, of Philadelphia, killed Saturday when her car and another collided.

Philadelphia—William McAlinden, 16, of Philadelphia, killed Saturday when his car and another crashed. McAlinden and four passengers were returning from a dance.

Philadelphia—John Brooks, 16, of Philadelphia, killed Saturday when the stolen car he was driving bounced off a trolley and crashed through a bridge rail. The car did a somersault as it fell 32 feet and landed on its roof in a shallow creek. A teen-age passenger was injured. The crash happened while a policeman was chasing the youths.

DIE NEAR CHAMBERSBURG

Philadelphia — Mrs. Rita DiGiovanni, 42, of Philadelphia, a nurse, killed Sunday when a car driven by her husband was hit by another and she was thrown to a sidewalk, police said. The accident happened near City Hall. The DiGiovanni car jumped a curb and smashed into City Hall. The husband was not hurt.

Chambersburg—Ralph Lydie Jr., 18, of Waynesboro R. 2, killed Saturday in a two-car collision on Route 997 near here. State police said Lydie's car was out of control on a curve when it hit another car. The other driver was injured slightly.

Pittsburgh—Robert C. Aber, 19, of Penn Hills, killed Sunday when his sports car and another car collided. Three persons were injured. The sports car broke into flames, but police said Aber was dead before the fire started.

Connellsville—Clyde Fulmer, 79, of Dawson R. 1, killed Saturday when his car went through a fence and hit a tree along Route 19 not far from Fulmer's Fayette County home. State police said Fulmer apparently had fallen asleep at the wheel.

MAY EXPAND SCHOOL A YEAR

HARRISBURG (AP) — A 12-month school term enabling students to graduate in three years may be put into effect next fall by Pennsylvania's 14 state colleges.

The State College Board of Presidents has approved the year-round schedule but it left it up to individual colleges whether to introduce it on campuses next fall.

Dr. Charles H. Boehm, superintendent of public instruction, said Saturday Shippensburg already has decided to go ahead with the new schedule and four other colleges are considering it. The idea came from Dr. Ralph Heiges, Shippensburg president.

Under the new system, the school year would be divided into four quarters of about 12 weeks each. Short vacations would separate each term.

CAMERA SHOW ON POLITICS GOOD FEATURE

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It may be a good thing that Allen Funt and his "Candid Camera" crew decided to hold up their filmed political poll until a late date—Sunday night—in the campaign.

They asked 35 customers in an airlines office whether a candidate known to have scruples should be removed from the ticket whether Vice President Richard M. Nixon was the more retroactive candidate and if they thought Sen. John F. Kennedy was the more superfluous speaker.

Fifteen or so of the prospective voters who were asked these non-sense questions expressed firm opinions even though they obviously had no idea what the words—scruples, retroactive and superfluous—meant. It was funny but it was also a sharp commentary on human nature. Anyway, it's too late now to have scruples or lack of them becoming a burning issue in the campaign.

FULL OF POLITICS

Meanwhile, television continued to be full of politics over the entire weekend.

In addition to many long and short paid telecasts, there were the usual analyses, interviews, projections, plus frequent plugs by each network for its forthcoming election night coverage.

The campaign managers of the two presidential candidates (on "Meet the Press") acknowledged they thought the campaign went on for too long a time in this era of electronic hustings. It's almost over now, but we've all had a pretty steady TV diet of politics and politicking since July. During the last couple of weeks there have been more political programs than westerns.

Ed Sullivan gave us a tour of Chicago and Dinah Shore took us on a trip through Spain and Portugal Sunday night.

So little imagination was used on the backgrounds of the Sullivan show it might just as well have stood in its New York theater. But where else on television could you learn that the electric washing machine was first introduced in Chicago in 1907?

Dinah's show was beautiful, dignified—and slow.

Add all those small amounts of cooked vegetables to a cheddar cheese sauce and serve up with a flourish. No one will know it's a dish made from leftovers!

MRS. RALPH LONG

EMMITTSBURG — A/C and Mrs. James A. Brown and baby, of Forbes AFB, Topeka, Kans., are spending a 30-day leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown.

Brownie Scout Troop 93 met Friday evening in St. Euphemia's Hall with 13 girls present. It was announced that Mrs. Leonard Sanders, Holly and Susan Keepers, Mrs. Joseph Haley and Josephine Haley attended the Juliette Low celebration held in Frederick last Sunday. Each gave a report of the activities. With the help of a few of the mothers, the girls started their sewing project.

Mrs. Adele Miller's discussion on salads was the highlight of the Emmitsburg Homemakers' Club's October meeting held at the home of Mrs. Paul Beale. Mrs. Miller, who is associate home demonstration agent, elaborated on an interesting film strip which pictured many ways that foods can be used in salads. The president, Mrs. Robert Fitez, was in charge. The nominating committee presented the following officers which were elected: Mrs. Paul Beale, president; Mrs. Robert Fitez, vice president; Mrs. George Eyster, secretary; Mrs. Louis Higbee, treasurer; Mrs. Murray Valentine, director.

Preparations were made for the open house to be held in Frederick by the 23 members and guests present. Mrs. Harry Boyle, the club's first president in 1923, told of the beginnings of the club. Seven charter members also attended. After Mrs. Miller's talk, refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Luther Creager.

The Sodality of the Blessed Virgin of St. Joseph's Church held a Halloween party for members and guests on Sunday evening in St. Euphemia's Hall. Approximately 50 attended. There was entertainment and refreshments were served. At the monthly meeting of the club on Monday evening the Christmas party was discussed. The Office of the Dead was read by the members present. The group decided to have a social after the next business meeting.

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 72 held a Halloween party Thursday evening in the basement of the American Legion home. Approximately 50 members, guests and parents were present. The group enjoyed games, dancing and refreshments. Prizes for best costumes were won by Josephine Rodgers, first; Connie Seiss, second, and Ralph Ohler Jr., third.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a minstrel show to be held in the High School on Thursday and Friday, November 10 and 11. The admission will be 60 cents for adults and 30 cents for children. Show time each evening is 8 o'clock. Members of the Jaycees will furnish transportation on Election Day Tuesday for all eligible voters of either party. Those desiring free transportation are asked to contact Robert Simpson at HI 7-2181.

A shrimp feed will be held Saturday evening at the American Legion home. Admission to the affair is $1.25 per person. Serving will begin at 7 p.m.

PENNA. MAY BE CRUCIAL STATE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pennsylvania, Keystone State of the nation's original 13, may turn out to be the key state in today's election for the 35th president of the United States.

The state was a major political battleground, with top-level campaigning in the cities, in the suburbs, on the farms, at airports and supermarkets.

Democratic and Republican leaders both claim Pennsylvania's important bloc of 32 electoral votes. But several political experts and pollsters are uncertain. They consider the fight now being decided in the secrecy of the state's 9,044 polling places a toss-up. There were just too many undecided and silent voters in pre-election sampling.

With a forecast of generally fair and cold—good voting weather—approximately 4,800,000 men and women are expected to cast ballots. This includes about 50,000 absentees and is roughly 85 percent of the record registration of 5,687,837.

Whether Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic nominee, or Republican Richard M. Nixon win the state may well depend on what happens in Pennsylvania's two biggest cities — Philadelphia in the east and Pittsburgh in the west.

The International Association of Fire Chiefs predicts fire losses in the United States for 1960 will total more than $1,072,000,000, a new record.

POLLS FOR KENNEDY

Most poll takers give Kennedy a slight edge, but rarely have so many predictions been hedged in so many directions.

The difficulty is simple. Scarcely a one of the 50 states can be rated safely in the bag for either Nixon or Kennedy. Big states like Illinois (27 electoral votes), Michigan (20), Pennsylvania (32) and Texas (24) are tossups.

With 269 electoral votes needed for victory, a slight switch in either direction could upset the most carefully calculated prediction.

OTHER RACES OBSCURED

Almost lost in the excitement over the presidential race are the contests for governors and for Congress.

Much of the attention in the gubernatorial races will center on Michigan, Kansas and Illinois.

TO KEEP CONGRESS

In Michigan, Democrat G. Menden (Soapy) Williams is stepping down after serving a record of six two-year terms. Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson, 35, a Democrat, is running against Paul D. Bagwell, 47, a Michigan State University speech professor.

In Kansas, Democrat Gov. George Docking is trying to be-

'WAGON TRAIN' TO DECIDE ON NEW MASTER

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Death of Ward Bond means NBC's popular "Wagon Train" will soon enlist a new wagon master.

Reports from the West Coast are that there are 16 new episodes of the Wednesday night show are ready for showing, which will keep Bond in the cast until Feb. 20. During the next few days, however, some plan will have to be worked out to give the show a new wagon master. Will Robert Horton be transferred from scout to head man? Or will a new co-star be brought in?

SITUATION BEFORE

Such a situation has arisen comparatively few times in television. When Jack Webb's original partner in early "Dragnet" series, Barton Yarborough, died suddenly of an embolism in 1951, a special episode was written quickly which had Joe Friday's partner, Ben Romero, shot and killed in line of duty. Later, Ben Alexander took over as Webb's co-star. (Yarborough's death was handled on his radio show—he played Clifford Barbour on "One Man's Family" for years by having the character unexpectedly leave for China for a protracted stay.)

ABC coped with its current difficulties with James Garner, "Bret" of "Maverick," by replacing him with a new Maverick character — Cousin Beau without loss of popularity to the program.

Timmy of "Lassie" has had three mothers (Jan Clayton, Cloris Leachman and, now, June Lockhart) and Danny Thomas has had two TV wives (Jean Hagen and Marjorie Lord). Usually, non-emergency shifts in casts are made between seasons, as quietly as possible.

poor writers

Pity the writers of television sports news these weekends of college football. Because there have been complaints about the use of such harsh words as "trounced," "clobbered," and "shellacked" the writers are hunting inoffensive and yet colorful and active synonyms for "defeated" or "conquered."

Here was one writer's verbal effort for one list of weekend football scores: edged, pounded, shut out, downed, bumped, stung, knocked off, lost to. He never once said "beat."

ATLANTA (AP)—Retired Maj. Gen. George Van Horn Moseley, 86, a controversial former 3rd Army commander, died Monday of a heart attack. Before retiring in 1938, Moseley issued a vigorously worded criticism of Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal and later made a series of what he called "Americanism" speeches.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—William D. Rockne, 39, son of famed Notre Dame football coach Knute Rockne, died Monday night. His

WATCH "BIG SEVEN" STATES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Want to do your own election experting right after the polls close this evening? Then keep your eye first on the big Eastern states.

If a commanding trend doesn't show up right away, you might focus on Ohio for a clue to farm voting and North Carolina for a line on what the South does, especially how the religious issue figures.

The pollsters and predictors seem agreed that, even more than usual, the race between Democrat John F. Kennedy and Republican Richard M. Nixon hinges on the "Big Seven" states with their total of 205 electoral votes—a long way toward the 269 needed to elect. President Eisenhower took them all in his 1956 sweep.

MOST ARE DOUBTFUL
Most of them are doubtful this time, although polls give Kennedy an edge in the biggest of all, New York with 45 electoral votes. Pennsylvania, with 32 votes and a thoroughly doubtful status, would be a good one for early watching.

It's in the east, so its polls close comparatively early—8 p.m. EST. Another member of the Big Seven with advantages for trendspotters is Ohio. It has enough rural vote to give some indication what the farmers think of the candidates. Its polls close at 6:30 p.m. EST.

The others of the Big Seven states are California, Illinois, Michigan and Texas.

The government of Saskatchewan this year planted more than 27 million fish, mostly rainbow trout fingerlings, in 82 lakes.

Partners in Community Health Care

An important member of the hospital "team," the Registered Nurse touches the life of everyone who is hospitalized. She symbolizes hospital care to the sick.

Hospitals, in order to recruit and retain qualified nursing personnel, have had to increase salaries to nurses by 50 per cent since the end of World War II.

Seventy cents of the hospital dollar is spent for "human" services of the kind provided by the nursing profession. The cost of these services add considerably to your hospital bill, but speed your recovery. Isn't the cost of living worth it?

Most hospital services are covered by Blue Cross. As a member you need not worry about a big hospital bill.
